Sheriff Hilkey's statement on the loss of Commander Greg Assenmacher

Greg was a significant piece of the fabric of our community, his loss is a blow to us all. I will remember him for his extremely intuitive investigative skills, volunteer work with important community projects, most notably the WWII Honor Flight, and for his jovial nature. Greg and I have had a lot of fun over the years talking about the first time I met him, December 26, 1984, when he gave me my very first traffic ticket. Kris and I are thinking about Deletha and their kids today as they deal with the loss of this good man.
