SWAT CALLED TO LOMA AFTER SHOOTING INCIDENT

Deputies on-scene at Loma address overnight

Mesa County, Colorado—Deputies have issued a warrant for the arrest of Loma resident, 45-year-old Mark Edward Young of 1640 P Road, early this morning after a shooting incident that occurred at that address last night. Deputies were first called to the P Road house on a report of a vehicle with bullet holes in it. Based on the information provided about a high power rifle on the premises of the house, S.W.A.T. operations were called to the scene.

Deputies worked for nearly six hours trying to make contact with anyone in the home, believing Young remained in his home. Just before 4 a.m. today, deputies made entry into the house finding it empty.

The attached warrant was issued for Young in connection to the June 8th shooting incident. A photo of Young is not being released at this time pending his arrest. He is considered armed and dangerous. Anyone with information about Young's whereabouts is asked to contact 911 immediately.
